'JFK'

Nixon Weighs In

Add Richard Nixon to the list of public figures who have weighed in on "JFK," Oliver Stone's controversial movie about the Kennedy assassination. At an informal meeting with reporters last week, sources say, Nixon debunked a key theory of the film: that the U.S. military conspired to kill Kennedy because he planned to withdraw from Vietnam. "That's bullshit," said Nixon, according to the sources. Nixon said he hasn't seen "JFK" and doesn't intend to. ■
